

How many times have you been walking through a store and a pretty bottle catches your eye, demanding that you stop and take a closer look? It doesn't matter what's in the bottle — it could be perfume, rose water, soap, or even a cooking ingredient — anything housed in a dressed-up bottle triggers a “buy me” reflex in a way that nothing else does. For this template, we want to see the many ways that you would dress up a bottle! Would you add fabric or ribbon? Would you add trinkets or fun mediums, such as resin? Stretch your creative muscles and send in your must-have bottles by August 15, 2012 for possible inclusion in our January/February/March 2013 issue.

Tempting Template

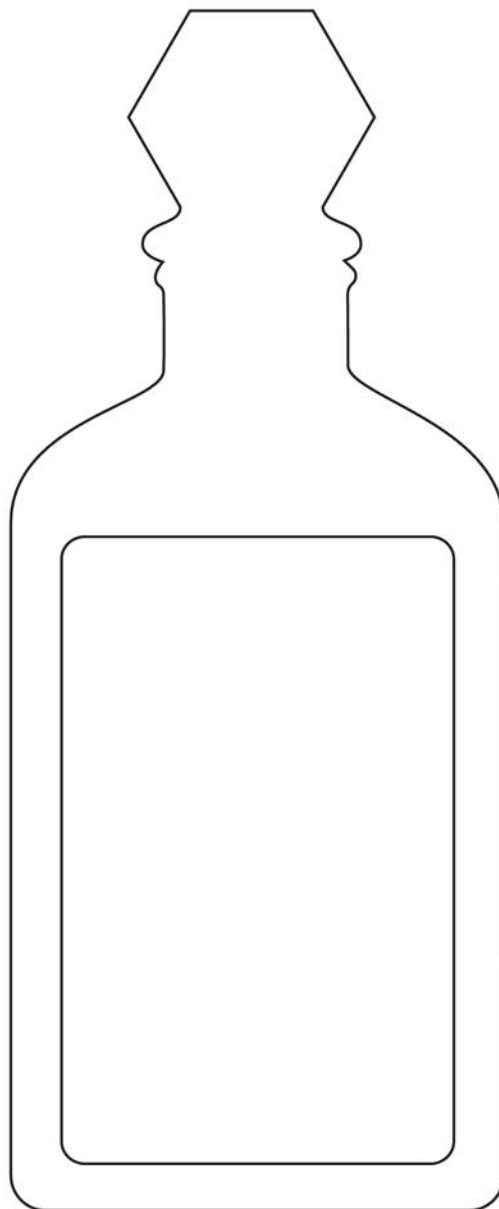

Absolute Deadline — August 15, 2012

Template Instructions

1. Photocopy template twice.
2. Cut bottle from first photocopy, and label from second photocopy.
3. Stamp, decorate, and embellish pieces as desired.
4. Adhere label to bottle.

Papillon
3¼" x 6½"
Andrea Rangno
Mission Viejo, CA

You can find past templates and finished samples online at www.stampington.com. Click on the box marked “Tempting Template” in the left navigation bar on the home page.