

It seems that mason jars always hold something special. From homemade preserves and savory sauces to art supplies, mason jars are an endearing and old-fashioned way to hold a variety of treasures. Explore all of the many possibilities of a mason jar with this issue's template. You can use it to show us the contents of your imagination, your beloved treasures, or anything else you can think of. Just remember to send in your samples by May 15 for possible publication in our October/November 2011 issue.
