

tempting template

Pocket cards are all the rage right now. There are a ton of different kinds to play with. Why not make a card that's an actual pocket? Stampington & Company's Director-of-Publishing, Jenny Doh, created this cute French-inspired pocket delight. With a few scissor cuts and a couple folds, you too can create your own pocket card. What can you come up with? Keep it this size or enlarge it as much as you want. We want to see what you can do. Send us your creations to be published in the June/July issue.

Absolute Deadline: February 1, 2008

Pour Vous
4" x 4½"
Jenny Doh

Instructions:

1. Enlarge template as desired.
2. Copy template onto cardstock.
3. Cut out along solid lines and score dashed lines.
4. Stamp, color and embellish as desired.
5. Assemble.

*Template shown at 65% of actual size.

You can find all templates and finished samples (past and present) online at www.stampington.com. Click on the box marked "Tempting Template" in the left navigation bar on the home page.

