

The image of a butterfly can evoke different reactions from a creative community — for some a butterfly signifies a rebirth, and a letting go of a burdened past. For others, a butterfly symbolizes the need to soar, and the sense of freedom that comes with flight. For this template challenge, we want you to express artistically what a butterfly means to you. Anything goes for this challenge, as long as you remember to include stamping! Please send us your samples by May 15, 2013 for possible inclusion in our September/October/November 2013 issue.

Tempting Template

We'd like to thank Dan99 from My Crafty Life (dan99.blogspot.com) for this beautiful template, which was used for The Butterfly Project for the Holocaust Museum in Houston (hmb.org/led\_butterfly1.shtml). After you've submitted your butterfly project to The Stampers' Sampler using this template, we encourage you to create an additional free-floating butterfly to send to the museum.

Absolute Deadline — May 15, 2013

Template Instructions

1. Photocopy template.
2. Cut butterfly.
3. Stamp, decorate, and embellish piece as desired.

Soar
5½" x 4½"
Andrea Rangno
Mission Viejo, CA

You can find past templates and finished samples online at www.stampington.com/temptingtemplates/